

Sky Valley POA Meeting

August 15, 2018

The POA general meeting was called to order by Doug Palmer, president at 3:00.

Doug welcomed guests and new members.

Announcements:

1. POA directories are available after the meeting for pickup or purchase.
2. Upcoming Pancake Breakfasts will be on September 1 and October 6.
3. The next POA meeting will be September 19. The program will be a presentation by Julep Farms, a new business to Rabun County.
4. If anyone is interested in serving on the POA Board, please contact Doug or any board member. New board members election will be held at the October 17 meeting.
5. The City of Sky Valley will be doing the Hay Bale Trail again. If you want to decorate one, contact the city. University Row will be done again with a cost of $100. Get your school group together and let Linda Lapyrouse know by the end of August.
6. Eric Vogelbacher from Rabun Gap-Nachoochee School brought some information on the Georgia Tax Credit Program that can benefit RGNS. Besides serving local students, there are students representing 50 countries.
7. Karla Stahl from Forever.com will be doing a program on how to keep your photos safe. It will be on August 29 at 2:30 at the Club. RSVP to Karla if you want to attend.

The Program Then and Now, a power point presentation of buildings in Clayton as they were originally used and used now, was presented by the Rabun Historical Society. It was founded in 1977. The presenters were Pat Coleman and Linda Barden. The Historical Society hours are Monday-Friday; 10:00-2:00.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:00.

Respectfully submitted, Grace Guess
