After discussions with The Dillard House, Grace was able to get a reduction in the per meal cost to $60. As an alternative to The Dillard House, Tom Smith talked with Chris Clark about having the party at the Country Club. Chris indicated that the Country Club could accommodate up to 200 at a cost of $30 per person. The menu would include heavy hors d'oeuvres, with a cash bar. After discussion, Pam Henderson moved that we have the Welcome Back Party at the Country Club. Tom Smith seconded the motion and the vote was unanimous. Grace will talk with Chris to confirm the date and time of the party.

Pancake Breakfasts (Steil)

Due to increased price of food, the Board discussed raising the price of the pancake breakfast. It was moved by Roberta Walton that the price of the breakfast for adults will be raised to $10, while the price for children age 5 to 11 will remain at $5 and Children under 5 will still be free. Tom Smith seconded the motion and the vote was unanimous.
