

Sky Valley Property Owners Association general meeting minutes 7-19-23

President Grace Guess started the meeting at 3:06 pm proclaiming the July 3 celebrations best ever. Appreciation was given to Pancake Breakfast leader Luke Fogarty and his volunteers for feeding over 400. Appreciation also to Rick Rahn for his truck and the Curtis couple riding on the tool box.

Garden Club President Joy Akin invited all to their 7/26 art show and 7/27 flower arranging event.

Resident Watch Program forms for emergency contacts will be available thanks to Ed Steil, Barbara Kobacker and the Police Chief.

Grace still has directories available. Diana Maus was present to accept Sid Weber basket raffle tickets. The next POA meeting is August 16.

Mayor Hollie Steil was introduced by Don Germano. She provided her annual state of the city. She highlighted the new City Hall, new vehicles, culvert and road repairs, recent real estate and pickleball changes. TSPLAT funded much of this so the budget has no mileage change. Ordinances are being developed for financial policies, hotel/motels, Short Term Rentals, outside worker damages ie to roads. Water pumps for emergencies were purchased, plans are for better pressure valves, telegraphic monitoring and digital maps. Accolades to our public works employees.

Bill Oliver summarized the Mayoral Advisory Committees consideration of sewer system options and EV charge station installations.

The city is considering STR internet management, requesting more mail boxes, encouraging GA power light poles and cameras on Evergreen exit, WI-FI cameras at mailboxes and pavilion.

Slides from the presentation are available on the city website. Questions and suggestions are appreciated, Meeting was adjourned at 4:05 pm.

Pam Henderson, Secretary